

Kevin Ahern

Managing Partner/Vice President, Strategic Accounts

Kevin Ahern has been an integral part of Crowley Associates since 1986. He initially joined as a Field Sales Engineer and rapidly advanced within the company, assuming lead technical sales and senior management positions. His contributions have undoubtedly played a significant role in the company's success.

Kevin's reputation as a highly respected figure extends beyond the company, and his technical expertise and deep understanding of customer applications make him an invaluable asset.

Additionally, Kevin's role extends beyond technical matters; he also mentors and guides many of our field sales professionals. Throughout his tenure at Crowley Associates, Mr. Ahern has garnered numerous accolades and awards for his outstanding technical sales performance and remarkable achievements.

Kevin was educated at the University of Massachusetts, Lowell in Electronics and Electrical Engineering.

Kevin is a longstanding member of the ECIA Independent Manufacturers Rep Association and the ERA Electronics Representative Association.
